will be dramatized by Gang Busters on Friday at 8 p. m. over WJZZ.

Vengeful forces of law pursued the killer all over the country, thru railroad yards and desolated lands, finally catching up with him in a garage. One officer challenged the mad killer to shoot it out, man to man, but the killer leaped into a truck, started it rolling toward his challenger, shooting at the same time. The truck crashed into the garage wall, and the killer was found lying over the steering wheel, dead. A bullet had been sent thru his forehead, directly between his eyes.

Peggy Conklin and Joe Julian are co-starred in a "Grand Central Station" drama, Friday over WEAF 7:30 p. m. Others in the cast include Harry Bellaver, Arnold Moss, Maurice Taplin and Arthur Vinton.

The "First Piano Quartet" will be heard in its first all-modern program on Friday, 10:15 to 10:30 p. m. over WJZ.

The four keyboard artists, Adam Garner, Henry Holt, George Robert and V. Padwa, all play their own four-piano arrangements of "Villanesca" by Granados, "Polka" by Shostakovitch, Debussy's "Fetes" and the March from Prokofieff's "Love For Three Oranges."
