

Patriotic Songs Scheduled Features On Eddy Hour

"Uncle Walter's Dog House" To Show Problems Confronting Man Who Forget's Wife's Surprise Party

Continuing prominent featuring of patriotic songs, Nelson will sing "Your Land and My Land" by Sigmund Romberg in his program Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WABC.

He also will be heard in "The Kashmiri Love Song," "Got Plenty of Nothin'" from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" and "Tomorrow."

Eddie Conner, lovely lyric soloist of the series, will be heard in his solos and the Eddy-Conner duets. The Eddy-Conner duet will be "Thine Alone." The Armbrusters' orchestra accompaniment for the duets and the chorus of eight men and four women is featured in all of the songs.

A fine thing to plan a big surprise party for your wife, but so nice if you forget the details when all the plans are made. Ed Wiggins did just that. The program all about is on "Uncle Walter's Dog House," Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WEA.

For those whose patients custodial home in pine boxes are in for "Mr. District Attorney's" attention on the broad-based that popular WEA series.

ries, which airs each Wednesday at 9:30 p. m.. "The Case of the Death Cure" is the title and the action centers around a sanitarium in which even the mildest case is a life and death matter. The "D. A." played by Jay Jostyn, and his two trusty aids, Vicki Vola as Miss Miller and Len Doyle as Harrington, come close to being enrolled as "patients," before their teamwork puts them in a position to prescribe a long rest cure in prison, followed by electrical diathermy, as a remedy for murderous quackery. Ed Byron directs, and music is conducted by Peter Van Steeden.

Newspaper headlines will guide the steps of Nick and Nora Charles, radio's most engaging married couple, when they undertake another "Adventure of the Thin Man" on Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WEA.

A play within a play dramatizing the story of a man who became president of the United States seven years after his failure and disgrace will be presented during "Manhattan at Midnight," Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. over WEA. The drama, "Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant," will feature Ann Seymour as Mrs. Grant and Carlton Young as the pacifist who became a general and the flop who became President.

Excerpts from "La Boheme," including several selections which were not performed in the first presentation of the opera last January, will feature the "Great Moments In Music" program over WABC Wednesday at its new time of 10 p. m.
