

Nelson Eddy's Program To Mix Patriotic, Cowboy Tunes

Cab Calloway Will Broadcast From Camp Dix At 9:30 P. M. Wednesday; Selectees Set On "Quizzicale" Session

Nelson Eddy will sing a mixed program of patriotic, cowboy and love songs when he broadcasts Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WABC.

A highlight of his program will be "How Do I Love Thee," a setting of the famous love sonnet by Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Other offerings by the baritone will be "There's Something About a Soldier," "The Brown Bird Singing," "Hopak" and "Home on the Range."

Deep thinkin' and sold sendin' sons of Uncle Sam, in training at Camp Dix, N. J., will vie for intellectual and remunerative honors when Cab Calloway's Quizzicale session is broadcast from the introduction center Wednesday at 9:30 p. m., over WJZ.

In his well known "stream of consciousness" style which has made him the fair haired author of "Manhattan at Midnight" listeners, Joe Bates Smith has created "Death Came Smiling" to be

Clayton Hamilton, playwright, author and former Chairman of the Pulitzer Prize Jury for the Drama, will prepare a special script of anecdote and color for the presentation by "Great Moments in Music" of selections from Rudolph Friml's "Firefly" over WABC Wednesday at 10:00 p. m.

Days of the Noble Experiment will be recalled by "The Case of the Unlucky Horseshoe," the "Mr. District Attorney" play for Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF. Hijackers again terrify the highways, but it's gasoline—not alcohol—they're after in these days of rationing. Jay Justice, as the D. A., with trustworthy assistance of Vicki Vola as Miss Miller, his secretary, and Len Doyle as his confidential investigator, Harrington, can be depended upon, of course to round up the crooks and put them safely away.
