

by Ezra Stone Tucker, Patriot'

Extra Stone, who stars as Henry in the Aldrich Family series, will join the Treasury Star Parade during its broadcast over WIBA at 6:45 tonight. He will appear in the title role of "Tommy Tucker, Patriot," a play about a high school boy who set an example for his family in helping the war effort.

Other attractions tonight:

Music

8 p. m.—Summer Symphony (WIBA): Burlo Marx, conductor; "Pavane in A Minor," Gibbons-Marx; "Bourree in G Major," Norton; "Festival," Norton; two movements from "Bachianas Brasileras No. 4," Villa-Lobos; "Prelude No. 24," Chopin-Marx; "Tannhauser" overture, Wagner
... America Loves a Melody (WGN): with Leon Benditzky, pianist; Marion Claire, soprano; "Prelude in G Minor," Rachmaninoff; "Italian Street Song," "Kiss Me Again," "Goin' Home," "The Hills of Home."

8:45 p. m.—Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): Jessica Dragonette, others; "Lover," "One Night of Love," "Tangerine," "Speak to Me of Love."

Sports

9 p. m.—Bill Stern (WMAQ): and Commander Gene Tunney.

Quiz

7:30 p. m. — Truth or Consequences (WMAQ): moves into a home at Joselynville, Mass., with midgets, live seals, etc.

Drama

9:30 p. m. — Ellery Queen (WMAQ): "Adventure of the Dog Fires," story of heartless pyromaniac.

Variety

8 p. m. — National Barn Dance (WLS): "June Moons and Honeymoons" party, with Dinning sisters, Eddie Peabody, others.

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WBBM): inventor of lie detector, collector of combs and cosmetics, actress who specializes in laughs.

9 p. m. — Believe It Or Not (WIBA): how the sea avenged a wrong against it.