Vilhjamur Stefanson, of New York City, noted explorer, whose hobby is debunking theories about the frozen North, will be the guest star on Dave Elman's popular "Hobby Lobby", Saturday, at 8:30 p. m. over WABC.

Among the other interesting hobbyists who will appear on the program are Mrs. Lee D. Hall, of Columbia, Mississippi, who triumphed over physical disability; and Dr. Frederic Danrau, of New York, who collects specimens of "foreign matter" that roam thru the body.

The concert to be given by the touring Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra under Jose Iturbi on Saturday, will be picked up by WJZ from 9:30 to 10 p. m. The program will comprise Debussy's "Afternoon of a Faun", "Sorcerer's Apprentice" by Dukas and Verdi's "Ritorna Vincitor" from "Aida", with Elizabeth Crawford as soloist.

Leslie Howard, who is just about your favorite English actor, sends London's greetings to America's sports enthusiasts, in a two-way trans-Atlantic talk with Bill Stern on the "Sports Newsreel of the Air" broadcast Saturday, at 10 p. m. over WEAF. Howard's concluding words will be the smashing climax from his new anti-Nazi film, "Mister V".

The boys will sing "Come on, Gabriel, Blow That Horn," "Sierra Sue" and "Two Buck Tim from Timbuctoo" at the "Old Hayloft."
