

Five Series Debuts on A

Five series will make their debuts on the air today—two of them on WIBA. Here they are, in chronological order:

10:30 a. m. — American Eagle club: variety and messages from famous meeting-place of American fliers in London—WGN.

10:45 a. m. — Commando Mary: program based on important roles of American women in the war; Mary Anderson, director of the women's division of the U. S. department of labor, is first speaker—WIBA.

4 p. m. — Dear Adolf: series of letters from typical Americans to Hitler, written by Stephen Vincent Benet in dramatic form; Raymond Massey opens series in role of "the farmer"—WIBA.

6:15 p. m. — Time Out for Laughs: with Lou Holtz and Mildred Bailey—WBBM.

8:45 p. m. — Diane Courtney and the Jesters: songs and instrumental music—WENR.

Other attractions today, classified for your convenience:

Religion

9 a. m. — Highlights of the Bible (WMAQ): "The Gift of Reason."

3 p. m. — The Rt. Rev. William Temple (WBBM): archbishop of Canterbury, speaking from London; the Rev. Michael Coleman, from Washington, D. C.

5 p. m. — Catholic Hour (WIBA): "Lay Participation in the Liturgy."

Discussion

10:02 a. m. — Reviewing Stand (WGN): "What Does Price Fixing Mean?"

10:30 a. m. — Invitation to Learning (WBBM): Clifton Fadiman, John Cournos, Mark Van Doren on Gogol's "Dead Souls."

1:30 p. m. — Roundtable (WIBA): "China."

2 p. m. — Wake Up, America (WENR): "Is the War Destroying Free Enterprise?"

7 p. m. — American Forum (WGN): "How Can Labor-Management Relations Be Improved in War Industries?"

Drama

4:30 p. m. — Plays for Americans (WIBA): Bette Davis in "Adolf and Mrs. Runyon."

7:30 p. m. — Inner Sanctum (WLS): Boris Karloff in "The Wolf Man."

Music

1:30 p. m. — St. Louis Opera (WBBM): music from "Balalaika," "Roberta," "Irene," "Maytime," "The Bartered Bride," "Naughty Marietta."

2 p. m. — Columbia Symphony (WBBM): Howard Barlow, conductor; "Barber of Seville" overture, Rossini; "Suite of Ancient Airs and Dances," Respighi; "Three-Cornered Hat," DeFalla; "Triana" and "Fete Day in Seville," Albeniz.

3:30 p. m. — Kostelanetz and Spalding (WBBM): with Dennis Day; "Sleepy Lagoon," "Meditation," "Liebestraum."

4 p. m.—Family Hour (WBBM): Gladys Swarthout and Frank Chapman, musical couple; "Desert Song," medley, "Invitation to the Dance," Drigo's "Serenade," "Because I Love You."

6:30 p. m.—Bandwagon (WIBA): Ted Weems.

Sports

12:35 p. m. — Golf (WBBM): Hale American tournament (on WMAQ at 12:45 and 2:15, on WIBA at 4:15; on WBBM at 5:15).

Variety

6 p. m. — Victory Parade (WIBA): Charles Laughton, Groucho Marx, Gloria Warren, Rudy Vallee, Lionel Barrymore, Joan Davis.

7 p. m. — Charlie McCarthy (WIBA): and Judy Garland.

8 p. m.—Fred Allen (WBBM): and "Doc" Rockwell.

Miscellaneous

2:30 p. m.—Army Hour (WIBA): barrage balloon school, photographic center, cooks' school, new weapon, report from overseas.