Kilgallen, on her "Voice of Broadway" program, at 6:15 p. m., over WABC.

The composer of such hits as "Arms For The Love Of America," "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and other melodies will be on hand at the girl reporter's microphone to bring listeners up to date on this new doughboy show. The score of "This Is The Army," entirely new except for "God Bless America" and "Oh, How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning," which are excerpts from "Yip Yip Yaphank," will have its World Premiere in New York on July 4th.

Newsreel editors and sob sisters will tangle in a war on general information when they appear on the "Battle of the Sexes," via WEAF at 9 p. m.

The men of the newsreels, quizzed by Julia Sanderson and cheered by Frank Crumit, will include George Masterson, of Pathe News; Jack Hanney, of Fox Movietone; Bill Montague, of Paramount News, and Francis Canter Wood of the Embassy Newsreel theatre.

The sob sisters, all free lanceers of the dipping word, are Therese Munzer, Mrs. Frances Burns, Faith Scarles and Mrs. J. Davenport.

John Nesbitt, 32-year-old commentator with the authoritative voice, has been signed to team with famed conductor-composer Meredith Willson as the 13-week summer replacement for the vacationing "Fibber McGee and Molly."

The new series, to be known by the name of its two stars starts Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF.

The half-hour will draw its material from all phases and periods of American life. Willson's versatile baton will guide his orchestra from Gershwin to Tin Pan Alley. Nesbitt will draw on history, literature, current events and even his funny papers to make for a casual informal program.

Never the settling kind, Cab Calloway and his deep talkin' board of experts and brain busters desert the hustle and bustle of Manhattan and head for Chicago for the next broadcast of the Calloway "Quizzicale," to be presented at 10 p. m. over the WJZ network.

The King of Ill Do Ho and his troupe, filling an engagement at the Chicago theatre, will send for Hollywood immediately after the broadcast to fill a six-week date at Casa Manana.
