Tommy Riggs Will Sub For Burns And Allen For Summer

Program Also Shifted To Columbia Circuit; Orchestra Medley To Highlight Meredith Wilson's Spot

The new Tommy Riggs show, which takes over the Burns and Allen assignment for the summer months, will be heard over WABC from 9 to 9:30 p. m. on Tuesday.

Tommy Rigg's half hour of fun and music with his invisible partner, Betty Lou, begins Tuesday, July 7. In the meantime, the pair will visit the last two Burns and Allen programs, June 23 and 30, both of which will be heard over NBC.

Highlights of Meredith Willson's program Tuesday, July 7, 9:30 p. m. EWT, NBC-Red, will be an orchestra medley showing the way Americans have said "I Love You" in the past century and a half. The medley begins with 18th Century tunes, proceeds thru the past hundred years to the Jazz Age of the last post-war period, and concludes with "Thirty-two Bars of I Love You," an original composition by the composer-conductor.

The usual "lost music" offered by Willson on his new show will be featured next Tuesday by an old folk tune, "Love Is Just a Cheat." Irving Ceasar has revived the song. As for Willson's memories of his boyhood years, he has picked "Cannonball," a tune about a railroad train. He heard it at a vaudeville show when he was eight years old. As usual, Willson himself has reconstructed the words and music for a duet by Connie Haines and Bob Carroll. John

Dear Sir:

Below you will find a letter which I have written and which if you would be so kind it would make me very happy if you printed it in your Voice Of The People column.

My letter is as follows:

America, our country, is now fighting a war against a terrible foe. During the last war and in the years following that war American people began to look upon many of the old formalities
