

Joan Davis' Disappearance Roils Camp Castaway Waters

Vallee Enlists Aid Of Dinah Shore And Groucho Marx In Hunt For Missing Guest; Program Set At 10 P. M.

Rudy Vallee's Camp Castaway is shrouded in mystery. The strange disappearance of Joan Davis has turned the mythical summer playground into a hunting ground for amateur sleuths.

To help him track down his missing guest, Rudy has called in Dinah Shore and Groucho Marx as assistants for the broadcast of Thursday at 10 p. m. over WEAF.

Donald Crisp, one of Hollywood's best known character actors, and Rosemary Lane, erstwhile singing star of George Abbott's Broadway musical, "Best Foot Forward," will be Bob Crosby's guests in the Music Hall Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAF.

The regulars of K. M. H.—Victor Borge, Mary Martin, Ken Carpenter, the Music Maids and Hal and John Scott Trotter—will be on hand to make their usual contributions to the sparkling variety show.

Earl Wrightson's baritone voice will be heard to particular advantage when he appears as soloist with WJZ concert orchestra, directed by Joseph Stopack, on Thursday at 7:30 p. m. He will sing the bright "Yoeman's Wedding Song" by Poniatowski. The orchestra will be heard in the overture to "Martha" by Flowtow; "Catoches," by Dobson, and Percy Grainger's "Mock Morris Dance."

The problem of how to deal with wartime conditions in defense areas will be discussed at length on "America's Town Meeting of the Air," to be broadcast from the auditorium of the San Diego Senior high school on Thursday at
