

de Seversky Hobby Lobby Guest List

Mrs. Donald M. Nelson, wife of the chairman of the War Production board, and Maj. Alexander P. de Seversky, authority on aeronautics, will head the guest list of a gala "Hobby Lobby" program as it begins a Tuesday series over WBBM tonight at 7:30.

For 15 years Mrs. Nelson has been collecting children's toys, mending them in the basement of her Chicago home, and distributing them to underprivileged children. She will tell of her hobby on the program.

Maj. de Seversky, identified with aviation for many years, is author of the best seller, "Victory Through Air Power." He comes to "Hobby Lobby" to tell of his own hobby, which is music.

Judy Canova, actress and singer, will tell about a large collection of rare mountain hillbilly tunes.

Tonight's other features include the following programs:

Variety

8 p. m.—Tommy Riggs (WBBM): buys Betty Lou a "potato sack" dress; complications follow.

8:30 p. m.—Cheers From the Camps (WBBM): first Canadian broadcast by Ted Husing; Camp Borden, Toronto.

Music

6:15 p. m. — Moonlight Serenade (WBBM): Glenn Miller orchestra at Fort Eustis, Va.

6:30 p. m. — American Melody Hour (WBBM): Conrad Thibault, Vivian della Chiesa, Evelyn MacGregor; "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," "Home on the Range," "Mighty Lak' a Rose."

8:30 p. m.—Wilson and Nesbitt (WIBA): "Freelance March" from Sousa's opera of same name.

9:30 p. m. — Tommy Dorsey (WIBA): Don Jacoby, Great Lakes trumpeter, guest; "Songs My Mother Taught Me," "Swing High."

Quiz

8 p. m. — Battle of the Sexes (WMAQ): members of "Little congress," young people working for senators and representatives in Washington.

Drama

7 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WIBA): "Mistaken Mayhem;" would-be murderer is murdered.

8 p. m. — Famous Jury Trials (WIBA): "flower shop" murder.

9 p. m. — A Date With Judy (WIBA): too many parties under same roof.

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m. — Treasure Chest (WMAQ): Horace Heidt interviews Lieut. Mickey Cochran; Pvt. Carl Spencer, former bicycle champion; Jackie Westrope, jockey, and others.

8:30 p. m. — This Nation at War (WENR): transformation of Washington, D. C., into a smooth-running machine.

Wednesdaytime

5:25 p. m. — Tom O'Shanter Golf Tourney (WIBA) described by Lawson Little and Dave Garro-way.

WHA Wednesday