

"Quiz Kids" Renew With U. Of C.

Britain To Broadcast Special Pro gram Sunday; Girls To Salute At Camp Edwards

For more than a year now, a mental ing around the "Quiz Kids." Ever since overcame a panel of learned professors of Chicago in an off-the-air quiz session been itching for a chance to redeem they will get that chance when the Q heard over WJZ at 7:30 p. m.

The professors' team includes Dr. T. V. Smith, professor of philosophy, famous for her writings on political philosophy and author of more than 20 books, Dr.
George V. Robrinsky, Sanskrit professor, philology authority and first-hand student of Oriental affairs; Dr. Arthur P. Scott, history professor, political student and explorer; Dr. Harry S. Everett, mathematics professor and lecturer in astronomy; and Dr.
Adeline Link, professor of chemistry.

Pitted against these will be the brightest minds that the Quiz Kids can muster. They include Ruth Duskin, aged 8, who specializes in literature, with emphasis on Shakespeare; Richard Williams, 12, expert in mathematics and geography; Van Dyke Tiers, 15, specialist in chemistry and physics; and two authorities on history and current events — Jack Lucal, 15, and Harve Fisch-man, 11.

Gladys Swarthout will sing the "Seguidilla," from "Carmen," and dramatized tribute will be paid to the personnel of the United States Army on the Sunday broadcast of The Family Hour, at 5 p. m. over WABC.

"The Strange Cat," fantastic tale of a feline phantom with homicidal impulses, is the harrowing whodunit to be heard as the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" offering Sunday at 8:30 p. m., over WJZ.

Locale of the story is the bayou regions of Louisiana. There, one of the story's central characters rents a mysterious, deserted house. This despite the warnings and fears of his closest friend, who has a premonition of disaster.

Americans all, in penthouse and on prairie, are being invited to have tea with the people of England and listen to a half hour of genuine British entertainment in a series of shortwave programs titled "Britain to America" over WEAJ Sunday, at 5:30 p. m., and every Sunday thereafter.
There will be bits by celebrated performers and simple talks by men and women immersed in the war effort.

The opening program, originating in the BBC studios in London, will have Leslie Howard as narrator.

Saluting Camp Edwards, Mass., the all-girl orchestra and chorus of the "Hour of Charm" will conclude their program with the camp's favorite hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers" on Sunday, at 10 p. m. over WEAJ. Participating under Ph will be Vi ing stars, magic viol

SU

Eastern Wa Hour for (Alterations entirely t 1:00—Robe
Radio Cit
The Churc
B. S. Bere
1:15—Silver Dance Mu
1:30—Mode
Josef Mar
News; Gr
2:00—Samu
Blue Ther
The Spitt
Richard E
2:15—Danc 2:30—U. of Show of Y
Opera Fro
This Is Fo
3:00—Music
Roy Porte
Columbia To Be An 3:15—Comm Chautauq
3:30—The C
4:00—Vespe Baseball; 4:30—We Army-Navy
Andie Kos
Young Peo
5:00—Dear Moylan S Dancing A Gladys Sw
Dance Orch
I Hear Am
5:15—Music
5:30—Britai
Alan John Halls of A 5:45—Wm. I 6:00—Cathol Sweet and Edward R.
Wythe Wil 6:15—Bobby Overseas E 6:30—Victor Drew Peat
Gene Auti
Nobody's A 6:45—Edwa 7:00—Edna Sunday Ev
To Be An Seventh E
7:15—Lou H
7:30—The B
Quiz Kids
We the Pe
Chicago Da Stars and 8:00—O'Keel
Earl Godw World New
The Ameri
8:15—Gibbs
8:30—One M
Inner Sanc
The Crime
8:45—Gabrie
8:55—Five M
9:00—Sunda
Walter WI Mischu the Old Fashio
9:15—Parker
9:30—Album
Jimmy Eld
Jane Fione
9:45—Diane 10:00—Phil St
The Good V
Phil Baker
John B. H
10:15—Broadc
10:20—Joe & M
Weekly Rep
This Is Our Walter Win
10:45—Parker
11:00—Late N
News & Da
Dance Orch
11:30—London 12:00—Two H