

For the Boys in Camp

Dinah Shore, the Blue network's queen of song, runs over a few numbers with Gordon Jenkins, Hollywood music director, who conducts her song sessions. The tuneful miss directs her songs to the boys in camp and the girls they left behind.

WIBA Program Will Feature 'Faust,' Bartered Bride'

Soprano Margaret Speaks will sing the "Jewel Song" from "Faust" and the Alfred Wallenstein symphony orchestra will play "Dance of the Comedians" from "The Bartered Bride" as the two popular operas are featured over WIBA tonight at 7:30.

Miss Speaks also will sing Del Riego's "O, Dry Those Tears," "Thine Alone" from Herbert's "Eileen" and Oscar Straus' "We Will Always Be Sweethearts."

The orchestra will complete the concert with the "Czardas" from Delibes' "Coppelia" and Lehar's "Gold and Silver" waltz.

Other program attractions for tonight:

Music

8 p. m.—Great Artists (WMAQ): all-Russian concert featuring violinist Jascha Heifetz; "Melodie," "Meditation."

8:30 p. m.—Grant Park Concert (WGN): by Chicago symphony orchestra.

8:55 p. m.—Ted Straeter Orchestra (WENR): begins weekday series.

9 p. m.—Contented Hour (WMAQ): Josephine Antoine, William Miller, Reinhold, Percy Faith orchestra and chorus; "Voices of Spring," "Annie Laurie."

9:30 p. m.—Music That Endures (WGN): Attilio Baggio, tenor; WGN symphony orchestra . . .

Vaughn Monroe (WBBM): features Marilyn Duke, Lee Sisters, and "Four V's."

Drama

7 p. m.—Cavalcade of America (WMAQ): "This Our Exile" from Longfellow's "Evangeline."

9:15 p. m.—Alias John Freedom (WENR): story of undercover worker attempting to free victims of Axis invaders.

Quiz

7:30 p. m.—True or False (WLS): six enlisted men vs. six civilian women.

8:30 p. m.—Dr. I. Q. (WMAQ): Kansas City, Mo., broadcast for service men.

Miscellaneous

7 p. m.—Vox Pop (WBBM): Parks Johnson and Warren Hull at New Orleans naval station.

8 p. m.—Victory Theater (WBBM): presents Maj. Edward Bowes' amateur program.

9 p. m.—An American in England (WBBM): "London to Dover."

Tuesdaytime

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WMAQ): "War Strikes the Rural School."