

Billie Burke Is Scheduled As Guest On Vallee Program

Joan Davis Will Grow Jealous Over Comedienne's
Interest In Crooner; Distinguished
Baritone To Be Heard

A bee in Billie Burke's bonnet puts a crimp in Rudy Vallee's plans and a jealous gleam in Joan Davis' eye, all because Billie becomes interested in interior decorating before her visit to Rudy's show Thursday at 10 p. m., over WEAF.

Rudy's store is nice enough as stores go, but a little commercial for Billie's taste, so she decides to interior decorate the Vallee emporium. Joan, who is busy clerking in the store, is one of the fixtures that doesn't meet with Miss Burke's approval. Even Rudy is not sure about Joan.

Altho he finally has agreed to let her clerk in the store, he has put a conspicuous "keep out" sign on the cash register. The Sportsmen Quartet and the orchestra will assist Vallee in musical interludes to enliven Rudy's drama of romance vs. business.

Earl Wrightson, distinguished young baritone, will be soloist on the Concert Orchestra Thursday at 7:30 p. m., over WJZ.

Wrightson will offer "Don't Count the Stars" by Stolz; Keel's "Mother Carey," Burleigh's "Jean," and "Egyptian Ballet Suite" by Luigini.

Virginia Bruce, blond cinema siren, will join Frank Morgan in another Mark Hellinger original play, "It's Fun to be Fooled," as a highlight of "Post Toastles Time" Thursday at 8 p. m., over
