

Polish Refugee Makes Debut With Summer Symphony Series

"Hot Copy," Weekly Radio Story Of Newspaper Life, To Be Heard On Saturday Night

Gregor Fittelberg, who came to this country a short time ago after escaping from the Nazi hordes who overran his native Poland, where he founded and conducted the Polish symphony orchestra, will make his debut on the summer symphony concert, Saturday at 9 p. m., over WJZ. He will also conduct the orchestra on the following Saturday.

Music critics and students will be present to measure one of his own compositions, "Polish Rhapsody," which he will include in the program. Also featured will be his own transcription for orchestra of Szymanowski's "Chant De Roxane," from the opera "Le Roi Roger." Zador's "Scherzo Tarantella," and Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Suite" from "Zar Saltan" will conclude the program.

"Hot Copy," weekly radio story of newspaper life, will be heard at 9:30 p. m. Saturday over WEAF.

Guaranteed a cool quarter to a half-million dollars in the sale of War Bonds as an incentive, Allen Prescott and the merry madcaps WJZ's "Prescott Show," will be heard from "the Palace theatre of the borscht circuit," Grossinger's Country club, on Saturday at 10 p. m.

With $150,000 worth of bonds already pledged in lieu of the troupe's appearance, Prescott and his paragons of mirth and melody will present their regular Saturday night show from the famed resort to boost the ante.

Accompanying the popular wit and m.c. will be Kay Lorraine, Clark Dennis, Hi, Lo, Jack and the Dame string quartet and announcer-dialectician Glenn Riggs. Ossie Caswell's orchestra will provide the music.

Rounding out a five-week's stay in Argentina, Dick Adams, young American music-research student, and his Latin American pals, will pay a visit to the city of Mendoza on "Pan-American Holiday," Saturday at 4 p. m. over NBC.
