

stance to Nazis d Letter' Tonight

Increasing resistance by countries of occupied Europe and the list of mounting Nazi inhumanities against them will be described in the "Twenty-Second Letter" over WBBM at 9:30 tonight.

Sport fans will have their hour tonight, too, when WGN will broadcast the first of a three-game grid series pitting the Army All-Stars against top professional teams. Tonight's will describe the Stars-Detroit Lions game at Detroit, starting at 7:15.

Other features tonight, classified:

Music

8 p. m.—Chamber Music Society (WIEA): with Teddy Powell, the Marlowe Eight, and Paul Lavalley's Windy Ten.

9 p. m.—Great Moments in Music (WBBM): with Dorothy Sarnoff, soprano, Suzanne Sten, mezzo-soprano; excerpts from "Martha."

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Midwest Mobilizes (WBBM): dramatizes work of the handicapped in war effort.

7 p. m.—Thin Man (WMAQ): a gaudy coat has a part in a couple of murders.

7:30 p. m.—Dr. Christian (WBBM): with Jean Hersholt.

8:30 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WMAQ): "A Slight Case of Arson."

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—W. Averill Harriman (WBBM): Pres. Roosevelt's personal envoy at the recent Churchill-Stalin talks speaks at Russian War Relief society dinner.

10 p. m.—The Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch (WMAQ): discusses plans for the Holy Name Holy hour in Chicago next Sunday.

Variety

8 p. m.—Mischa, the Magnificent (WBBM): show switches its broadcast time from Sundays for one week.

8:30 p. m.—Danny Thomas (WENR): has a fling at running a health farm.

Thursdaytime

8:45 a. m.—Thus We Live (WBBM): stories of the Grey Ladies.

5:15 p. m.—Jewish New Year (WBBM): start of Jewish year 5703.