The Army All-Stars will meet the New York Giants, their second National Professional Football league opponent for the week, in a game to be broadcast at 7:15 tonight by WGN.

With Jack Britt at the microphone, the game will come from Archbold stadium, Syracuse, N. Y.

Other features tonight, classified:

Music

8 p. m.—Summer Symphony (WIBA): concludes series; Cephale et Procris," Gretry; "Adagio in C Minor for String Orchestra," Lekeu; "Fantasy on a Walloon Theme," Ysaye.

8:45 p. m.—Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): Jessica Dragonette; Bill Perry; "My Beautiful Pink Lady," "Dearly Beloved."

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

8 p. m. — Army Air Show (WMAQ): the life of Brig. Gen. Claire V. Chennault, commanding the U. S. army air forces in China.

6:30 p. m.—Hot Copy (WMAQ): "Subconscious Phenomena," with Fern Persons.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

8 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): Dinning sisters, Hot Shots, others; "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle," "Wait at the Gate for Me, Katy."

9:30 p. m. — Studio C l u b (WIBA): Budd Hulick, guestar.

10:16 p. m.—War Bond Party (WMAQ): special scripts by Woman in White, Road of Life, Tent Show Tonight, Vic and Sade, Nelson Olmsted shows; also. Bill Thompson of Fibber McGee show, Marion Mann, Ruth Lyon, Edward Davies, Irma Glen, Carnation choir, Dinning sisters, Vagabonds, George Barnes and associates, Dr. Roy Shield orchestra and others.

◇ ◇ ◇

Discussion

6 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): congressional reaction to Pres. Roosevelt's Labor day address on wages and prices; Sen. Robert A. Taft (R.-O.)); Alexander Jones, Washington editor; Phelps Adams of New York Sun.

9:15 p. m.—Labor for Victory (WMAQ): how labor and government work to avert strikes; Philip Pearl, AFL publicity director; William H. Davis, War Labor board chairman; Dr. John Steelman, chief of the U. S. conciliation service, and Frank Fenton, AFL national director of organization.