

Gildersleeve On Air Charlie M'Carthy S

Don Ameche, Edgar Bergen And
New Singing Discovery, Dale
Also Scheduled

Hal Peary, radio's genial Gildersleeve, and Charlie M'Carthy on the WEAF program at 8 p. m. The broadcast also features Don Ameche, Edgar Bergen and his orchestra, and Noble's new singing discovery, Dale Evans.

Not since Sampson was shorn of his locks has there been such a double cross as will be perpetrated in "The Mystery at Night," spine-tingling tale to be heard as the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" offering Sunday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Lowell Thomas, commentator, explorer, globe trotter and author, will be the first guest of Commentator Upton Close on "World News Parade," new weekly 15-minute news digest which makes its bow on WEAF, Sunday, 3:15 p. m.

Phil Spitalny and his all-girl band, and the Hour of Charm make their twelfth appearance before the Armed Services, this time for the officers and men of Camp Haan, California, in a program at 10 p. m., Sunday, over WEAF.

America's two top-ranking tunesmiths, Irving Berlin and Jerome Kern, provide the featured "Manhattan Merry-Go-Round" fare for Sunday at 9 p. m. over WEAF.

The question foremost in the minds of the American people—that of the draft situation—will be debated on the "Wake Up, America" program Sunday at 3:15 p. m., over WJZ by United States Senators Joseph Rosier, of West Virginia, and Harold H. Burton, of Ohio.

A medley from Jerome Kern's "Roberta" and Gluck's aria "Che faro senza Euridice" will be sung by lovely Gladys Swarthout on the Sunday, broadcast of "The Family Hour" featuring Deems Taylor and Al Goodman's orchestra, at 5:00 p. m. over WABC.

Arthur Reinwold, 13-year-old freshman in Senn high school, Chicago, is a lad who has a staggering list of accomplishments, which makes him a natural candidate for the Quiz Kids program. As such, he will be welcomed into the select circle of the school room of the air on Sunday, at 7:30 p. m., when it is heard over WJZ. Kostelanetz program over WABC Sunday at 4:30 p. m., will be compositions by the late George Gershwin.
