

Three Broadway Musicals Will Be Put On Air Friday

"There's A Great Day Coming Manana" Will Be Curtain Raiser On Cities
Service Concert

Three popular Broadway musicals of recent seasons will provide the featured fare for the "Cities Service Concert" Friday at 8 p. m. over WEAF.

The show's opener will be "There's A Great Day Coming Manana," from "Hold On to Your Hats," by the ensemble. Lucille Manners will sing "I'll Follow My Secret Heart," from Noel Coward's "Conversation Piece," and the ensemble will ring down the curtain with "It Was Written in the Stars," from the Cole Porter score of "Du Barry Was a Lady."

The orchestra has slated the Furiant, from Smetana's "Bartered Bride." Ross Graham will sing "Rose of Tralee," and Miss Manners will offer "La Danza," by Rossini. Dr. Frank Black conducts.

A chaplain at Pearl Harbor said, "Praise the Lord, and Pass the Ammunition," when the bombs were falling heaviest. This quote was taken for a song which will be introduced by Lanny Ross and Connie Boswell on the Caravan Hour Friday, 10-11 p. m. WABC. Margo will feature An American At Work as her dramatic "Smoke Ring" spot. Xavier Cugat will play "Negra Leonore." Other vocal selections will be Lanny singing "Take Me," and "All the Things You Are." Connie Boswell sings the perennial favorite "Somebody Loves Me," and "My Devotion." Edward Ellis as narrator presents another episode from Thornton Wilder's "Our Town." Herb Shriner, radio's newest find, will feature his own brand of Hoosier philosophy and comedy. In final salute, all the members of the program will wish the cast of "This Is the Army" farewell and good luck on their tour by singing a medley of songs from the Irving Berlin hit.
