

Fibber M'Gee And Molly Return To Air Tuesday

Last Season's Cast Intact, Including Mrs. Uppington, Wallace Wimple, Oldtimer And Mayor La Trivia

Streamlined to suit 1942 tastes in radio, Fibber McGee and Molly and their Wistful Vista friends will return to the airwaves Tuesday over WEAJ, 9:30 p. m.

Last season's cast will return intact with Jim and Marian Jordan as Fibber McGee and Molly; Isabel Randolph as 'Mrs. Uppington;' Bill Thompson as 'Wallace Wimple,' and the 'Oldtimer,' and Gale Gordon as 'Mayor Le Trivia.' Harlow Wilcox is announcer, Ceell Underwood is producer, and the music is by Billy Mills and his orchestra, with the King's Men quartet.

Colorful ceremonies in connection with the decoration for heroism of Navy fliers who participated in the Battle of Midway, will be carried over WJZ from 4:00 to 4:30 p. m.

The stirring scene, including the reading of citations by a high Navy official and interviews with some of the birdmen to be honored, will be broadcast direct from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Chicago.

Appropriate selections will be offered by the 400-voice Great Lakes choir and band.

When Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou decide to move into a new home, the occasion will lead to a free-for-all among their neighbors, ending in nothing less than a grab-bag contest on the "Tommy

From a United State Navy base which will be identified to the listening audience only as "Island X—somewhere in the Pacific," Ray Noble and his orchestra will take the air at 9:30 p. m. on Tuesday in a continuation of the nationwide "Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands."

Eloquent Daniel Webster will try radio for the first time when

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Eastern War Time P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed are due to corrections by networks made too late to incorporate.)

he participates in "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9:00 p. m. over WJZ.

A man with a phenomenal memory who rattles off at will the entire contents of a Sears Roebuck catalog, a nine year old girl who plays popular music while sitting under the piano, and a woman whose hobby has had to be discontinued because of the war—these and many other interesting hobbyists will be guests on Dave Elman's Hobby Lobby Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over WARC.

The 3rd Battalion of the 17th Regiment of the New York State Guard, comprising 250 officers and men under the command of Major Robert J. Geis, will join in the vocal fun during the "Sing for Dough" session over WJZ Tuesday at 8:30 p. m.

OTTAWA FARM BUREAU PICKS NEW MANAGER

(Times News Bureau)

OTTAWA, Sept. 20.—Appointment of Edward Morgan of Venuedocia to the position of manager of the Putnam-co Farm Bureau Cooperative-assn. Inc., was announced today by the board of directors.

Morgan will succeed Donald Mann in the post on Thursday. Mann resigned recently to accept the position of branch manager