

District Attorney Tonight on WIBA

Two programs, Eddie Cantor's "Time to Smile" and "Mr. District Attorney," will make their debuts tonight on WIBA, Cantor at 8, the mystery series at 8:30.

Cantor will open from Camp Callan, with Ida Lupino gueststarring, and a cast including Bert Gordon, Dinah Shore, Hattie McDaniel, and Harry von Zell announcing. Edgar Fairchild's band will supply the music. Mr. District Attorney will present "The Case of the Unwilling Suicide," with Jay Jostyn in the title role.

Other features tonight, classified:

Music

7 p. m.—Nelson Eddy (WBBM): with Nadine Connor; "Capt. Stratton's Fancy," "My Sword and I," "On Wings of Song," "Little Grey Home in the West."

7:30 p. m.—Tommy Dorsey (WIBA): from Albuquerque, N. M., air base.

8:30 p. m.—Spotlight Bands (WENR): Sammy Kaye plays from A. O. Smith Co., Milwaukee, as firm gets army and navy "E".

9 p. m.—Great Moments in Music (WBBM): excerpts from Jerome Kern operetta, "Music in the Air."

12 midnight—Music You Want (WENR): "Concerto No. 2 in B. Flat Major," Brahms, with Vladimir Horowitz at the piano; "Mazurka in C Sharp Minor," Chopin.

Drama

7 p. m.—Adventures of the Thin Man (WMAQ): Nazi spies seek chemical warfare secrets.

7:30 p. m.—Dr. Christian (WBBM): "On to Glory."

11:15 p. m.—Author's Playhouse (WMAQ): Nelson Olmsted, storyteller adapts John Galsworthy's "The First and The Last" for radio.

Variety

9:30 p. m.—Service Men's Show (WGN): from Chicago service men's center; Tom, Dick, and Harry, Hoosier Hot Shots.

Miscellaneous

6:30 p. m.—Midwest Mobilizes (WBBM): spotlights sixth service command's drive for 7,700 technicians from the Midwest; Lieut. Daniel J. Connell of air forces ferry command, others gueststar.