

Kate Smith Will Present Bits From Broadway Success

Gladys Cooper And Wendy Barrie Will Star In Emlyn Williams' War Drama, "The Morning Star"

Kate Smith will present excerpts from Emlyn Williams' new Broadway success, "The Morning Star," a drama of war-torn London and starring Gladys Cooper, on her Variety Hour over WABC Friday at 8 p. m. Other features of the program will include Olyn Landick, "The Hackensack Gossip," Ted Collins, Jack Miller, and the orchestra and chorus.

Raymond Gram Swing, observing the 12th anniversary of his first shortwave broadcast to England, will be heard over WJZ Friday, 8:30 to 9 p. m., in a special program marking the event.

Co-speakers on the anniversary program, entitled "Anglo-American Relations Today," will be John G. Winant, U. S. ambassador to the Court of St. James'; Viscount Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., and S. K. Ratcliffe, widely known BBC speaker.

Grantland Rice, dean of America's sports authorities, has been signed for his 10th consecutive season as football commentator on the "Cities Service" program. Returning to the microphone Friday at 8 p. m., over WEAJ, Rice again will discuss each week the important games slated for the following day and will pick up winners from the Saturday football card. The veteran writer also will bring to the mike each week outstanding gridiron personalities.

Girl Scout Activities

Girl Scouts of Troop 1 participated in a hobo hike Tuesday incorporating it with their nature