

Richard Crooks R For Fall-Winter Se

Judy Garland Also Listed Among Radio Fans On Monday Programs

Richard Crooks returns for his annual of appearances as soloist on "Voice of Pi at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF.

For his inaugural program the Metro offer "Una Furtiva Lagrima" from Don Love," "Comfort Ye, My People" from Ha "Land of Hope and Glory" by Elgar, and Leoni.

Judy Garland, a great favorite with the Radio Theatre audience, will return for an appearance in Cecil B. DeMille's adaptation of the film "Morning Glory" Monday at 9:00 p. m. over WABC. John Payne and Adolphe Menjou will also be in the cast. Two regular members of the Telephone Hour's "Great Artist Series", Helen Jepson and James Melton, will be heard together on that program Monday, 9 to 9:30 p. m. over WEAF.

International comedienne Gracie Fields will bring her sparkling songs and wit to the radio audience when she is heard in a new five-minute series over WJZ, beginning Monday. The programs to be heard each Monday thru Friday at 9:55 p. m.

Accompanied by Harry Sosnik's orchestra, Gracie will offer her typical comedy songs each night and, in addition, will relate one of her inimitable dialect stories which have won her the title of "the most lovable person in the world of the theatre."

MONDAY

Eastern War T
Hour for CW
(10 minutes in p
each hour to late to 5:45 Front P
Captain Mid
The Ben Ro
Dance Dishes
6:00 Denver
Lone Ranger
Don Winslow
Ten Minutes
Prayer, Coun
6:15 Hilda H
The Blue Str
Vocal Program
6:30 Music
Al and Lee
Jack Armstro
Frank Parker
Blue Steak
The War Over
6:45 Bill Stern
Lowell Thom
Capt in Mide
War and Wor
7:00 Fred Wa
The Major, I
Amos and An
Fulton Lewis
7:15—War New
Republican Ca
Mary Small
The Johnson
7:30—Doming S
Lone Ranger
Blondie-Dagwe
Today's War
Fighting Cow