

Archie Almost Finished By Gal From Finishing School

"Duffy's Tavern" Program Scheduled Tuesday;
Horace Heidt Will Feature "Light Of The Silvery Moon"

A love-smitten Archie finds that Dan Cupld is seldom a stickler for culture when he entertains a girl from a finishing school at "Duffy's Tavern" in the broadcast starring Ed Gardner over WJZ on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m.

Gus Edward's celebrated tune, "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," will be one of the musical highlights on the "Treasure Chest" program, starring Horace Heidt with Frankie Carle and the Musical Knights on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over WCAF.

This sentimental melody will be sung by Mimi Cabanne and Steve Merrill. Other numbers selected include "Gobs of Love," by the Don Juans and the band; "I Love You," by Pinky Savitt, Gordon MacRae and the Don Juans, and Irving Berlin's "Be Careful, It's My Heart," by the band.

Did the beautiful bridge player deal her husband an accidental hand of death, will be the question for the WJZ jury to decide when "Famous Jury Trials" is heard Tuesday at 9:00 p. m.

Less than an hour after he had infuriated this wife by failing to make a game bid in spades, Robert Devon was shot dead. His lovely and weeping widow was brought to trial for murder.

Elizabeth Devon's defense will claim that the shooting was accidental, while the prosecution will produce evidence to show that both Mr. and Mrs. Devon let their affections stray.
