

Tall Girl From Dixie," has reported complete broadcast on the
"The Rose" on NBC each Saturday pianist, Arnold New.

teen Tonight s, Other Stars

Anna Neagle, Ethel Merman, Orson Welles, and Al Bernie of stage, radio, and screen will join the staff of Stage Door Canteen on WBBM at 8:30 tonight.

Welles is making a return engagement to the show. Raymond Paige's orchestra will supply the music.

Other features tonight, classified:

Drama

7 p. m.—Fanny Brice (WIBA):
tells "Daddy" how to convert the oil burner to a coal heater.

7:30 p. m. — Henry Aldrich (WMAQ): proves he's no telephone operator . . . Death Valley Days (WBBM): "That Thing Called Savvy."

9 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA):
with Ransom Sherman, guestar.

Variety

8 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA):
with Cass Daley, Charley Hughes, and Chaplain E. J. Burns of the army, guestars.

10:30 p. m.—Abbott and Costello
(WMAQ): with Marlene Dietrich, guestar.

Music

7 p. m. — Sinfonietta (WGN):
"Coriolanus Overture," "Symphony No. 35."

12 midnight—Music You Want (WENR): San Francisco symphony; "Symphony in D Minor," Franck.

Discussion

7:30 p. m. — Town Meeting
(WLS): "What Should Be Done About India?" with Sirdar J. J.
Singh, Henry S. J. Polak, and Frederick J. Schuman.

Fridaytime

2:30 p. m.—School of the Air
(WBBM): James M. Landis, director of the Office of Civilian Defense, tells how children can aid the war effort.