

Cantor, Billie Burke to Mix in Talking Marathon Tonight

Janice-Janice

Janice Gilbert plays "The O'Neills" adopted daughter Janice, a teen-age darling, in the daytime serial about a typical American family, aired Mondays through Fridays over NBC.

Eddie Cantor will put up his dollar watch as stake in a talking marathon with Billie Burke, screen chatterbox, on Cantor's program at 8 tonight on WIBA. The program will come from the new Hollywood Canteen.

Other highlights tonight, classified:

Drama

7:30 p. m.—Theater of the Air (WGN): "Linda's Beau" with Henry Hull . . . Dr. Christian (WBBM): "Miss Lizzie's Burglar."

11:15 p. m.—Playhouse (WMAQ): "A Man and His Son."

Music

7:30 p. m.—Tommy Dorsey (WIBA): features "Trees."

8 p. m.—Basin Street Society (WENR): with Red Norvo and xylophone.

9 p. m.—Great Moments in Music (WBBM): Jean Tennyson, Jan Peerce, others; "I Love You So," "Villa," "Merry Widow" waltz.

12 midnight—Music You Want (WENR): Lawrence Tibbett; "Toreador Song," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," "Barber of Seville," "Road to Mandalay."

Variety

8:30 p. m.—Jack Pearl (WGN): medley of Kern tunes.

Thursdaytime

2:30 p. m.—School of the Air (WBBM): boyhood story of Andrew Jackson.

10:45 NBC Little Jack Little.

11:00 Music of the Day.

11:30 Campbell Sisters.