

Varied Programs Arranged For Networks Tuesday Night

Admiral William Leahy To Give Principal Address At Navy League Dinner In Capital

With a campaign song, Archie hopes to become alderman without even kissing a baby, when he announces his candidacy in the broadcast from "Duffy's" over WJZ on Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m.

"Who Cares?" will be the plaintive opening tune of Billy Mills' orchestra on the Fibber McGee and Molly program Tuesday, at 9:30 p. m., via WEA. The King's Men will feature "Conchita Lopez," and the orchestra will close with "Everything I Got Is Yours." Fibber McGee and Molly, with the other residents of 79 Wistful Vista will be doing business at the same old comedy stand that has made them nationally famous.

Xavier Cugat and his orchestra will be featured on the "Spotlight Bands" program on Navy Day, over WJZ.

Admiral William Leahy, Chief of Staff to the President, will be heard over WJZ Tuesday, when he makes a special Navy Day address at a Navy League dinner at the Mayflower hotel here.

The special Navy Day broadcast from 10:15 to 11:00 p. m., will also bring Rear Admiral John Downes, commandant of the 9th U. S. Naval District, to the microphone.

Sidney Baxter, small-time sleuth, will be up before the studio jury when "Famous Jury Trials" puts him on the stand Tuesday, at 9:00 p. m., over WJZ.

A private detective badge found near the corpse of a strangled woman led to Baxter's arrest for the murder of Gertrude Brent. Altho Baxter will furnish an alibi, there will be many who know he had been hired by a jealous wife to see that Miss Brent left town.

Among the witnesses will be an embarrassed night watchman and a drunkard, who totes his bottle to court. Betting on the verdict among BLUE listeners will remain about even until a surprising turn in the testimony shows the jury its
