

WAVES

9:45

Radio listeners will hear some of the WAVES studying on the University of Wisconsin campus during a broadcast over WIBA at 9:45 tonight.

The program, arranged by the U. S. Naval Training schools, will be called "These Are the WAVES." Its purpose will be to acquaint listeners with the women comprising the school — their backgrounds, qualifications, and ambitions.

On the first program will be Dorothy C. Kaufman, advertising artist and designer from Brooklyn, N. Y.; Molly E. Collins, secretary from Cedar Grove, N. J., whose mother was a Yeomanette in World War I, whose father was in the navy, and whose brother is a bombardier; and Priscilla Cranston, secretary and treasurer of an interior decorating firm in Boston, Mass.

Other attractions tonight:

Discussion

7:30 p. m.—America's Town Meeting (WLS): Paul V. McNutt, Grenville Clark, James Carey, and Roger D. Lapham on "How Must We Change Our Manpower Methods to Win the War?"

9:30 p. m.—March of Time (WMAQ): Wendell L. Willkie answers questions about his Monday speech . . . Public Affairs (WBBM): Mrs. J. Borden Harriman on "The United Nations."

11:30 p. m.—Henry J. Kaiser (WGN): "American Industry Takes the Offensive."

◆ ◆ ◆

Drama

7:30 p. m.—The Aldrich Family (WIBA): Henry turns from scarecrow to scapegoat . . . Death Valley Days (WBBM): "Courtship on the Hoof."

◆ ◆ ◆

Music

8:30 p. m.—Spotlight Bands (WENR): Horace Heidt.

11:15 p. m.—Music of the New World (WMAQ): "Music Takes Root in the Colonies."

12 p. m.—Music You Want (WENR): music of Franz Schubert.

◆ ◆ ◆

Variety

7 p. m.—Fanny Brice (WIBA): as Snooks haunts a house.

8 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA): Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Eva Arden, Mary Martin, others.

8 p. m.—Stage Door Canteen (WBBM): Cornelia Otis Skinner, Roland Young, Helen Jepson, Stroud twins.

9 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA): with Joe E. Brown, Joan Davis.

9:30 p. m.—Maid of America (WGN): story of Monitor vs. Merrimac; musical tributes to navy.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miscellaneous

9 p. m.—The First Line (WBBM): training for submarine warfare.

◆ ◆ ◆

Fridaytime

12:05 p. m.—Bond Wagon (WGN): Bobbe Arnst, Art Kassel's orchestra.

2 p. m.—Philadelphia Orchestra (WIBU).