

"Famous Jury Trials" Mark Second Birthday On Radio

George Burns To Occupy Driver's Seat During
Burns And Allen Show Tuesday
Night

"Famous Jury Trials", weekly program presenting fictionalized versions of courtroom trials outstanding in history, will celebrate its second birthday over WJZ with the broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday.

In his quest for unusual situations for the "Famous Jury Trials" series, Martin H. Young, attorney, has taken the entire history of jurisprudence for his field. Terse dialogue, swift pace and electrifying sound effects are woven into the scripts in order that the listener may experience the illusion of being in a courtroom.

A tangled tale of jealousy and deceit which culminates in the murder of wealthy Henry Steele will be unfolded during "Famous Jury Trials", at 9 p. m. over WJZ.

They're dolling up "Duffy's". A full-fledged variety show with big-shot guest stars, a regular singer, and augmented orchestras will be the setting for Ed "Archie" Gardner's japes starting Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ. Madeleine Carroll, charming star of radio and movies, will inaugurate the new policy.

George Burns will pull a "fastie" on Cracie and sit in the driver's seat during most of Tuesday's "Burns and Allen" show released over WABC at 9 p. m.
