

Bing Crosby To Entertain Daley And Haydn Thursday

Two Of Hollywood's Zaniest Personalities Slated For Music Hall Program, Along With All The Regulars

Two of Hollywood's zaniest personalities—Cass Daley and Richard Haydn—will be Bing Crosby's guests in the Music Hall Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. It will be Cass Daley's fourth appearance and Haydn's second. Haydn made quite a name for himself in radio several seasons ago as the pictorial Professor Carp.

The regulars of KMH—songstress Mary Martin, Victor Borge, the Music Maids and Hal, Ken Carpenter and John Scott Trotter—will make their customary contributions to the show for edification and amusement of the guests.

Bing will sing the U. S. Marine Corps hymn, "At Last," "Sunday in the Park," "By the Light of the Silvery Moon" and "Day-break." His duet with Mary Martin will be "Rollo Rolling Along."

Movieland's Sherlock Holmes, Basil Rathbone, will endeavor to solve once and for all the Case of Bud and Lou when he guests on the Abbott and Costello program Thursday at 7:30 p. m. via WEAF. Connie Haines will sing while Leith Stevens directs the orchestra.

Frank "Superman" Morgan, king of all supers including the supernatural, will withstand an all-out effort on the part of emcee John Conte, aided by a renowned psychiatrist, to de-throne the master and examine the Morgan mind on another hilarious "Coffee

Time" program on Thursday at 8 p. m. over WEAF.

The soldiers, sailors and especially the Marines will be saluted by Herbert Marshall, in an original dramatic sketch, and by Hildegarde, in song, on the Stage Door Canteen program, Thursday at 9:30 p. m. via WABC. Bert Lytell emcees the half hour show which features the music of Raymond Paige.

"America's Town Meeting of the Air" will present four experts on news and propoganda in a discussion on the topic: "How Should we Fight Our Propaganda War?" he the 231st broadcast from Town Hall in New York. George V. Denny, Jr., will be the moderator.

BIDS ARE REJECTED FOR OLD SCHOOL BUILDING

ST. MARYS, Nov. 5—The St. Marys board of education rejected two bids received for the First Ward school building, abandoned in 1925, because it considered them too low. The building was erected at a cost of $10,000 in 1915.

The bids were offered by Thomas Larkin and Raphael Ave.

The board, after rejecting the bids, made arrangements to have the roof repaired.

RUMOR DENIED THAT NAVY WILL GET DRAFTED MEN

Navy Recruiting Officer Eugene Swartz denied rumors Thursday that voluntary enlistments in the Navy will be discontinued. Now as always, he said, it is possible to enter naval service only by enlisting. Men from 17 to 50 are eligible, he said.

There are 10 motor vehicles for every mile of highway.
