

Famed Actress To Appear As Guest Star On Radio Program

Jane Cowl Slated To Add To Entertainment At Duffy's On Tuesday Night

Macbeth will be served with a side order of ham at "Duffy's" on Tuesday, when Ed "Archie" Gardner recites Shakespeare with Jane Cowl, the actress, on the broadcast over WJZ at 8:30 p. m.

Miss Cowl has the bad judgment to stop at Duffy's to get in out of the rain. While she is plied with the hospitality of the house, Archie brushes up hurriedly on Miss Duffy's copy of Shakespeare, used for holding down checks which might otherwise bounce.

The late Bard of Avon does well to be just where he is when Archie clinches with the role of Macbeth. Still, the resourceful host of "Duffy's" is equal to the situation. Miss Cowl, he avers, would get no raves from the critics for the way she reads a short order menu.

Shirley Booth will be heard as "Miss Duffy", the watchdog of pap's cash register. Music will be by the Peter Van Steeden orchestra, and Dan Seymour will announce.

Gilbert Wright, inventor of the Sonovox, an instrument which makes it possible to give any sound vocal expression, will be one of the guests on Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" over WEAJ Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m. Others are Marjorie Meadows, holder of the world's record for women in the 50-yard dash; R. T. Newton, head guide at the Griffith Park (Los Angeles) Observatory; Wilma

Christian, costume and wardrobe fitter for 20th Century Fox movie stars and James East, 74-year-old golfer who has made 63 holes in one. Heidt's music soloists include Frankie Carle at the piano, Whistler Fred Lowery and Donna and her Don Juans.
