Radio attention will be divided Saturday between the first of the season's broadcasts from the Metropolitan Opera House and the annual Army-Navy football game.

In this area however, there won't be much choice, because few stations heard regularly here will carry the opera. One of them will be WEMP, Milwaukee, on 1340 Kilocycles. Next week, both WIBA and WMAQ will begin broadcasting the "Met" performances regularly.

Saturday's attraction, to begin at 1 p. m., will be "Lucia di Lammermoor," with Lily Pons, Jan Peerce, and Thelma Votipka.

Here's the Army-Navy schedule:

- 12:15 p. m., WBBM, with Ted Husling . . . 12:30 p. m., WMAQ, with Bill Stern . . .
- 1:30 p. m., WJJD, with Husling.

At the end of the Army-Navy game, WIBA will switch to the Georgia-Georgia Tech battle, which it will carry to its conclusion.
