Veronica Lake, the blond bombshell, will be the guest of Bill Stern on "Sports Newsreel" Dec. 12, WFAF, 10 p. m. Miss Lake, who has changed more feminine coiffures than any single person since Irene Castle introduced the short bob, and who has caused a few thousand schoolgirls' right eyes to retire behind blond tresses, is also an athlete of no mean ability. At her home in Lake Placid, Miss Lake became an expert in all winter sports, notably skating, skiing and bob sledding.

Three men who have peered into faraway nooks and crannies of the world compete with three women whose longest trips have been subway rides, when explorers vie with stay-at-homes on the Frank Crumit-Julia Sanderson quiz on Dec. 12, at 8 p. m., over WABC. Making up the team of men are Dr. Fillmore Osman, review editor of Explorers' Journal, whose explorations have taken him to Finnish Lapland, the Caucasus mountains and the Caribbean; Capt. Carl Von Hoffman, one of the few white people ever to get inside a harem and come out with photographs of it, and Col. Donald S. Rockwell, who has traveled thru 54 countries and five continents. Opposing them will be the women's team, composed of Mrs. Robert S. Pirie, a USO worker; Miss Edna Sklaner, in charge of department store sales of War Bonds and Stamps for the AWVS; and Mrs. Inez Van Heusen of the Red Cross.

Brilliant Rio de Janeiro, with its multi-colored mosaic sidewalks and streamlined buildings that are an architect's dream, will be seen by Richard Adams, young American music research student, on the "Pan-American Holiday" program Dec. 12 (WFAF, 1 p. m.) This is the 40th episode in the good-will series devoted to the culture, songs and customs of the Latin American countries.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., and Congressman Robert L. Doughton of North Carolina, chairman of the House Ways and Means committee, join with stars of the entertainment world in the OWI-Treasury-Navy-War Department "Over Here" program on Dec. 12, at 8:30 p. m., EWT., over WJZ.
