

Barrymore And Bob Burns Switch Broadcast Hours

Band Leader Tommy Dorsey To Guest On Eddie
Cantor's "Time To Smile" Hour
Wednesday

"Janie's Baby" is the title of "The Mayor of the Town," program starring Lionel Barrymore over WABC Wednesday at 9 p. m., a new time for the series. The story is about a girl who marries a judge's son and what happens to her child. Starting with the Jan. 6 broadcast—and on Wednesdays thereafter—the "Mayor of the Town" series moves up a half hour into the 9 p. m. spot formerly occupied by Bob Burns' "Arkansas Traveler" program which switches Jan. 7 to a Thursday 7:30 p. m. niche on WEAJ.

Banjo Eyes will meet the trombone king when Band Leader Tommy Dorsey guests on Eddie Cantor's "Time to Smile" show Wednesday, (WEAF, 9 p. m.) Joining the jive will be Hattie McDaniel, who can swing her portly person with the best of jitterbugs, and Bert Gordon. Dinah Shore will sing and Edgar Patten's boys will play.

Major Gen. Ralph Royce, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor, will be interviewed by George Hicks on the "Men of the Land, Sea and Air" broadcast Wednesday at 3:15 p. m. over WJZ.

Two guest artists, Suzanne Sten, noted mezzo-soprano, and Metropolitan tenor Charles Kullmann, will join Jean Tennyson, soprano, and Robert Weede, baritone, when the "Great Moments in Music" program presents excerpts from Bizet's "Carmen" on Wednesday, at 10 p. m., over WABC.

Sammy Kaye and his "swing and sway" orchestra will play a salute to the employes of the Radio Corporation of America in Camden, N. J., on Wednesday on the "Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands" at 9:30 p. m. over WJZ.

As timely as tomorrow's newspaper is "The Case of the King of the Black Markets," the "Mr. District Attorney" thriller over WEAJ Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. In this exciting story the D. A. gives the legal boot to the czar of the underground trade in coffee, silk stockings, sugar, tires and similar rationed products.

When Melissa, bride-to-be, meets Johnny, a sailor, on her wedding eve, a plot is born which will be dramatized during the "Manhattan at Midnight" program, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Under the title of "Hits of 1942," Kay Kyser presents an elaborate musical production on his "College of Musical Knowledge" over WEAJ Wednesday at 10 p. m.
