

Analysis Drive To On Air Thursday

Featured On Symphony Old Patriotic Songs To Played

of the National Foundation for ally open the 1943 fight against address over WABC Wednesday fund-raising campaign, conduct- s, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Jan. 15 and climaxes with the oosevelt's birthday on Jan. 30.

"New World" over WEAFF Thurs- day, at 11:30 p. m. The theme of the program is a "Hit Parade of 1776" and among other songs to be heard are "Yankee Doodle," "America," "To Anacreon in Heaven," "Washington's March" and "The Battle of Trenton," to be played as a harpsichord solo by Sylvia Marlowe.

Virginia Bruce, blonde film star, Yvette, and Monty Wooley, broad- casting from New York, are addi- tions to the cast line-up starring Bob Hope for the Stage Door Can- teen broadcast Thursday, 9:30 p. m. over WABC. Hope will be heard from Hollywood and Gov. John Bricker will be heard from Clevel- land, on this three way transcon- tinental broadcast.

Hemy Aldrich puts the skids to a musical career when a bob-sled race puts him out of the running as a future Paderewski in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAFF on Thursday, at 8:30 p. m.

Claire Trevor, the blond screen star, will bring some fireworks with her when she visits those zany comedians, Abbott and Costello on Thursday, 10 p. m. via WEAFF. Added to the sizzling program will be vocalist Connie Haines, singing a song titled "I'm Doing It for Defense" from the new picture, "Star Spangled Rhythm."

When Frank "Old Rustler" Mor- gan, tycoon rancher and cattle baton, gets a letter threatening the theft of one of his prize pigs, he labels "Pignapper" John Conte as the thief in another bombast of fun Thursday, (WEAFF, 8 p. m.) Then Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice), exploring the mysteries of the calendar with such queries as "why are there 12 months" and "why only one Christmas", leads "Dad- dy" Hanley Stafford to the con- clusion that there's no time like the present when it comes to ap- plying the golden rule, or ruler.

A mixture of Bob Burn's yarns and the coin of Spike Jones and his City Slickers will be blended for another half-hour with the "Arkansas Traveler" Thursday, (WEAFF, 7:30 p. m.) Supporting the tall story teller will be Walter Tetley as Dewey Banks, Marjorie Davies as Julie Gibson and Screen Veteran Lucien Littlefield as Chris Daley.