

Raspy - Voiced Andy Devine To Visit Crosby Thursday

"Daddy" Abandons Orthodox Sources Of Information For Baby Snooks; Frank Morgan Caught

Andy Devine, raspy-voiced comedian of the films, comes to the Music hall to visit Bing Crosby next Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. Devine's falsetto whisperings will provide plenty of fun, but little competition for Bing and the Hall regulars, which include as usual, the Music Maids and Phil, the Charioteers, Ken Carpenter and John Scott Trotter.

With Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice) firing a barrage of fancy and assorted questions at "Daddy" Hanley Stafford, the long suffering parent is forced to abandon orthodox sources of information while forcefully applying the rod Thursday (WEAF, 8 p. m.). Frank "Old Faithful" Morgan, caught between two fires as ecce John Conte and maestro Frank Tours apply the heat, reverts to form in an all-out recital of the fabulous doings recorded in Volume II of the History of Morgania.

The problem of planning for the peace and the post-war world "Can We Win the Peace During the War?" will be discussed on the "America's Town Meeting of the Air" broadcast on Thursday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Bob Burns, altho he portrays the rural character of "Arkansas Traveler," will prove on Thursday that he keeps abreast of current topics by having "Spike" Jones and his City Slickers feature the new United Nations war song, "Take the Door to the Left." Burns' program now is heard on WEAF at 7:30 p. m.

Carol Bruce, the stage, radio and picture star and Jack Benny, the radio, picture and stage star, will appear on Stage Door Canteen program Thursday at 9:30 p. m. over WABC.

Betty Hutton, the blonde jitterbug, will guest with Abbott and Costello Thursday, 10 p. m. over WEAF. The program will originate from the Navy Receiving station at Terminal island in Southern California.
