

"The Great Gildersleeve" On Radio Theatre Monday

"Victory Gardens" To Emphasize Home Grown Foods To Be Launched As Weekly Feature

Harold Peary, who plays the Great Gildersleeve Sundays will star on the Radio theatre, Monday, 9 p. m. over WABC in a special radio adaptation of "The Show Off." It will not be his first time in "The Show Off," for back in his stock company days, Peary played the part all up and down the Pacific coast. Una Merkel and Beulah Bondi will support him.

"Victory Gardens," a new program designed to emphasize the importance of home grown food in the war effort, will be launched as a weekly feature of WJZ beginning Monday. Ernest G. Moore, staff member of the Agricultural Research Administration, will act as master of ceremonies for the

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to corrections by networks made too late to incorporate.)

5:45—Front Page Farrell Serial—the Captain Midnight Serial, bluecast show, which will be heard from 12:45 to 1 p. m.

Much territory will be covered by Gracie Fields the week of Feb. 1, when she swings more than half way 'round the globe in her "United Nations Salutes," a feature of her Monday thru Friday WJZ program heard at 10:15 p.

South Africa will be saluted by the ambassadress of good will on Monday, and the national anthem, "Voice of South Africa," will be the featured song.