

Gracie Will Solve Labor Problems On Air Tuesday

Gals Who Make 'Em Will Compete With Guys Who Man Ships In Weekly 'Battle Of The Sexes'

With servants at a premium these days, Gracie Allen will work out a system of home-labor exchange between members of the Beverly Hills Uplift society which will give George dyspepsia, during the Burns and Allen broadcast, Tuesday, over WABC at 9 p. m. Tootsie Sagwell, the first member to volunteer for maid duty, will rout out the Burns household in the early hours of the morning to give them the kind of service that will end all service.

The gals who make 'em will have a go at the guys who man 'em, when a team of feminine shipbuilders from the Todd Ship Yards match wits with a team of men from the Merchant Marine on "Battle of the Sexes" Tuesday, WEAJ, 9 p. m.

The "Lodge Ranger" doughty hero of screen and radio, finds he has strayed entirely too far from the range of movie camera or purple sage when he hitches up at "Duffy's for Ed "Archie" Gardner's broadcast over WJZ on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m.

The dramatic story of the great anti-submarine patrol maintained by the Navy on the Easter Sea Frontier to protect United Nations cargo ships, will be related on the "This Nation at War" broadcast Tuesday at 10:30 p. m., over WJZ.

Other high spots in the story will come from Akron, O., on the production of Goodyear blimps, Boston for a pick-up from a minesweeper, and finally Floyd Bennett Field from the "ready room" of an air squadron which patrols this area.

When Ezra Blake, captain of a fishing schooner, is found dead with a harpoon thru his chest, James Ryton, a member of his crew, is accused of murder and arraigned in a trial which will be dramatized during "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9:00 p. m. over WJZ.
