

"Information Please" To Have Fred Allen As Guest

Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour And Phyllis Ruth Team To Present "They Got Me Covered" Monday

Fred Allen, the human joke book wired for sound, savant of Allen's Alley, once more will face Clifton Fadiman's questioning as a guest of "Information Please" Monday, when the program moves to a new day and time, WEAF, Monday, 10:30 p. m.

One of the screen's biggest luff-packed comedies comes to the microphone with Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour and Phyllis Ruth when "Screen Guild Players" present "They Got Me Covered" over WABC Monday, at 10 p. m. Bob Hope, screen and radio comedy star, gives one of his greatest performances in the movie, and the radio adaptation will contain all the comedy of the film.

Grace Moore and Charles Kullman, both prominent members of the Metropolitan opera, will appear together as regular members of the Telephone hour's "Great Artist Series" next Monday, 9 p. m. over WEAF.

A pair of Hollywood's personality boys come in for a bit of deglamorizing, when "Blondie Sees Stars," in the "Blondie" broadcast on Monday, at 7:30 p. m., e. w. t., over WABC. Blondie and Cora Dithers, by purchasing War Bonds, enter a "Valentine date" drawing, the winners of which are granted the privilege of spending an evening with two popular motion picture stars. Blondie and Cora win the dates, and then the fun starts.

A vivid portrayal of wartime America with Elliott Nugent, playwright, director and actor in the principal role, will be the "Cavalcade of America" presentation on Monday, WEAF, 8 p. m. Nugent, currently starring with Katherine Hepburn in the Theatre guild production of Philip Barry's play, "Without Love", on Broadway, will be heard on the air in "The War Comes to Dr. Morgan," an original radio drama by Kay Van Riper.

"The Baccus" from "Jocelyn" will be Soprano Josephine Antoine's solo on Monday, WEAF, 10 p. m.

The zaniest dramatic show in many, many moons is set for Monday, when George Burns and Gracie Allen star in "Ate Husbands Necessary?" Cecil B. DeMille is producer of the broadest over WABC at 9 p. m.

Grace Moore and Charles Kullman, celebrated stars of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear on the "Telephone Hour" Great Artists Series, Monday, WEAF 9 p. m. This marks the third time, since the series began, that two artists have been presented on the same program.

Six well known illustrators will oppose six girl members of the Three Arts club on "True or False", Monday, when the quiz program is heard at 7:30 p. m., over WJZ.

MIGRANT HIRING HALTED

AKRON, O., Feb. 15 -- (AP) -- The Manpower Commission ordered Akron employers to cease Feb. 22 the hiring of migrant workers because of the 48-hour week. Such workers have been coming to the area at the rate of 1,000 a week.

WARNER BROS. OHIO

LAST DAY

CARY GRANT

LT. (J.G.) BRUGH

Screen Actor Robert Taylor, 31, dons officer's cap after being sworn into naval air force in Los Angeles under legal name, Spangler Arlington Brugh. (NEA Telephoto.)

MUSICAL ANNOUNCED

DELPHOS, Feb. 15 Miss Kathryn Thull, Elida, will present a musical program in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Women's-assis of the congregation.

TEXAS RANGERS R

