

Mary Boland, Hedda Hopper, Lahr to Be Guests on WIBA

A new program, "Truax News and Views," will be broadcast from Truax Field at 5 p. m. today over WIBA. The weekly feature, consisting of news reports and interviews with Truax men, will be conducted by Staff Sgt. Allan Charak.

Mary Boland, actress; Hedda Hopper, Hollywood reporter, and Bert Lahr, comedian, will be guests on WIBA programs tonight. Mary Boland will visit with Abbott and Costello at 9; Hedda Hopper will do some talent scout hunting for a glamor girl during Rudy Vallee's broadcast at 8:30, and Bing Crosby will entertain a distinguished guest lecturer—Bert Lahr—on his 8 o'clock Music Hall program.

Other attractions tonight:

Drama

7:30 p. m. — Aldrich Family (WIBA): Henry runs into trouble when he locks the family car, leaving the keys inside . . . Death Valley Days (WBBM): a bolt of lightning saves Pat Kelly, accused of a payroll theft.

Music

7:30 p. m. — Ahoy America (WGN): Pat Willis, songstress, and Leo Weisel, yeoman second class, guests; orchestra directed by Lieut. J. G. Orrin Tucker.

8:30 p. m.—Spotlight Bands (WENR): Jan Savitt.

12 midnight—Music you Want (WENR): all Caruso program; "O Sole Mio"; "Vesti la Giubba" from "I Pagliacci"; Handel's "Largo"; "La Donna e Mobile" from "Rigoletto"; "M'Appari" from "Martha"; "The Lost Chord," and selections from the third act of "Traviata."

Variety

7 p. m.—Fanny Brice (WIBA): Baby Snooks goes to a beauty parlor.

8 p. m.—Major Bowes' Amateurs (WBBM): men from the seventh naval coast guard area participate.

8:30 p. m.—Stage Door Canteen

MARY BOLAND

WIBA at 9

(WBBM) Constance Bennett, actress, and Walter O'Keefe, comedian, guests.

Fridaytime

10 a. m.—Homemakers Program (WHA): "Trends in Legislature," Mrs. H. J. Schubert; Charlotte Wood, English instructor, reviewing "Alaska Challenge."

12:30 p. m. — Farm Program (WHA): "What's the Livestock Situation," Walter Ebling, agricultural economist.

2:30 p. m.—School of the Air (WBBM): "Road to China" discussed by representatives of Argo Community high school, Summit, Ill.

3 p. m.—Stop, Look, and Listen (WGN) Edna O'Dell sings "Harbor of Dreams" and "Harlem Sandman."

5:30 p. m.—Keep Singing, America (WBBM): Observing Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's birthday anniversary, David Ross reads "The Ship of State".