

"The Today Tomorrow" To Be On Author's Playhouse

Richard Haydn Will Drop In On Sammy Kaye
And Red Barber Broadcast
Wednesday

"The Today Tomorrow," Margaret Prescott Montague's story of a legendary giant whose strength hauls tomorrow into today to save a child's life, will be presented on Author's Playhouse, Wednesday (WEAF, 11:30 p. m., EWT).

Richard Haydn, expert on "fishes of all types," drops in on Sammy Kaye and Red Barber on Wednesday on the broadcast over WABC at 8 p. m. (EWT).

Haydn, who is reported to be returning to his native England shortly to join the armed service, will adopt his "prof.-ish" manner of speech to tell Sammy Kaye a thing or two.

Pvt. Tyrone Power, screen hero, just out of a Maine boot camp, is to get even with Eddie Cantor for the latter's recent radio version of Ty's film, "The Black Swan," when they meet at Marine Barracks, Camp Elliott, San Diego, Calif., for a "Time to Smile" broadcast, Wednesday over WEAF at 9 p. m. EWT.

"Laurie, Laurie," a story of murder and madness and a little girl who loved her doll too well, will be brought to the "Manhattan at Midnight" program, Wednesday by "Story Teller" Jim Amecche.

Jan Peerce, tenor star of "Great Moments in Music," will be able to appear on the special United Nations program to be presented Wednesday over WABC at 10 p. m. EWT. Others who will be heard are Jean Tennyson, soprano, and Robert Weede, baritone.

Finding a case which needs more urgent attention, "Mr. District Attorney" tracks down a group of criminals who dodge priorities by the simple expedient of stealing whatever they need, in "The Case of the Part-Time Patriot," on Wednesday, at 9:30 p. m., EWT, over WEAF. This replaces the story originally scheduled for that date, "The Case of the Ambitious Apprentice."

Isabel Manning Hewson, raconteur for "dinner tonight," will tell the story of Ned Kelly, most famous outlaw in Australian history, during her "Morning Market Basket" program on Wednesday, at 10 a. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Publisher Jerry North's pursuit of a tempting manuscript leads to two murders in "Mr. and Mrs. North," Wednesday, WEAF, 8 p. m., EWT. Jerry's decision to publish the book sets off all kinds of blackmailer's fireworks, thereby giving Pam a chance at some unorthodox but successful gun-shooting.

Into Nazi-conquered Greece, land of starvation and tyranny under the "New Order," goes John Freedom in the program of the same name to be heard over WJZ Wednesday, at 9 p. m., EWT.
