

Film Star, Manpower Chief On "Radio Reader's Digest"

Sydney Greenstreet, Villianous "Fat Man," To Haunt Charlie McCarthy On Sunday

Miriam Hopkins, screen star, and Paul V. McNutt, manpower chief, will divide headline honors on "Radio Reader's Digest" Sunday at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WABC. Miss Hopkins will star in a highly dramatic story written by a world famous author, while McNutt will tell the listening public the latest facts concerning the part all people will play in the war, bringing up to date his recent article, "We Will All Be in the War Soon."

Sydney Greenstreet, who played the villainous "fat man" in the movie version of "The Maltese Falcon," will haunt Bergen's sidekick, Charlie McCarthy Sunday. Dale Evans and Ray Noble's orchestra complete the bill for the broadcast over WEAJ at 8 p. m., EWT.

Last three of the six finalists competing for an award of $1,000, and a contract to sing with the Metropolitan Opera Co., on the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air," will be heard on Sunday at 6:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Kate Smith, the only woman in the United States who takes her radio programs to service bases, will tell of her experiences at the camps when she appears with producer-manager Ted Collins on the "We, the People" program Sunday at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WABC.

Three highlights in the history of St. Joe; the departure of the first pony express, the departure of Jesse James after a business visit and the departure of Jack Benny after a two-day vaudeville stard, will be commemorated by Jack Benny and troupe in their broadcast from that Missouri city on Sunday at 7 p. m., EWT, on WEAJ.

Following his wide acclaim as guest ghoul on "Inner Sanctum Mystery" several weeks ago, Peter Lorre, arc hogeman of two continents has been recalled to take up the macabre reins again in a new, specially prepared series beginning Sunday over WJZ at 8:30 p. m., EWT. The title for the first of these scripts is "The Black Sea Gull."

Cole Porter tunes will have the spotlight, when Phil Spitalny and the all-girl orchestra of the "Hour of Charm" present an all-Porter program on Sunday at 10 p. m., EWT over WEAJ.

"Is Business Making Too Much Money Out of the War?" will be the provocative discussion on "Wake Up, America" at the broadcast to be heard over WJZ on Sunday at 5:15 p. m., EWT.

"The Man Behind the Gun," the program series about Uncle Sam's fighting men, will be presented over WABC at a new time, starting Sunday. The dramatic broadcasts will be at 10:30 p. m., EWT.

John Charles Thomas, beloved baritone, will sing Molloy's famous "Love's Old Sweet Song," Sunday at 2:30 p. m. over WEAJ.

Robert P. Patterson, Under-

SUNDAY, MARCH 7

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to corrections by networks made too late to incorporate.)

12:50—That They Might Live—the Stars From the Blue, a Concert—bbs
Salt Lake Tabernacle's Choir—cbs
Living Caesar and Safety Songs—mbs
12:45—Letters to My Son Series—mbs
1:00—Morgan Beatty's War Telescope