king of the neighborhood team on the "Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou" show Friday at 10 p. m., EWT, over WEAJ with indifferent results. Optimistic Betty Lou will do her best to convince Wilbur that a baseball bat is not to be used for the acrobatic feats of a baton twirling majordomo, but her prodigy will be immune to her suggestions.

One of Nick Charles' old flames turns into a scorching murder case which makes Nora see red in "The Case of the Lively Corpse," another laugh-and-chilla-minute episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man" on Friday, (WABC, 8:30 p. m., EWT).
Staying in the apartment by himself while Nora visits some relatives, Nick opens his sleepy eyes of a fine morning to find a lady corpse in the other twin bed.

Students outside the United States will select Fred Waring's "Victory Tunes" for the first time when favorite songs of the University of Mexico are presented on the program Friday, (WEAF, 7 p. m., EWT). The broadcast signals the three-day Inter-American Institute to be held at Boston university beginning March 15.

The U. S. Army Air base at Rome, N. Y., will be the next step in Kate Smith's tour of service bases for the Variety hour broadcast over WABC, Friday at 8 p. m., EWT. The program will be broadcast from a giant airplane hangar at the training base.

Subversive elements are undermining the morale of two companies of the French Foreign Legion in North Africa. If anybody can clean up this situation, it's the irrepressible Yankee truck drivers, Stumpy and Cottonseed.
And that's just what they do in the "Road to Danger" episode Friday, (WEAF, 11:30 p. m., EWT).
