

Gracie Allen Will Try To Restore Classic Tradition

Congressman To Talk On "Anti-Racketeering Bill" On Radio Broadcast
Tuesday

Gracie Allen, disturbed over the influx of jazz, comedy and other bourgeois amusements to Carnegie hall, will attempt to restore the classical tradition of the famous concert theatre by staging her own concert debut there in company with Paul Whiteman and his orchestra, Tuesday. The event will be broadcast over WABC at 9 p. m., EWT.

Congressman Sam Hobbs will be heard on WBAF on Tuesday, (7:30 p. m., EWT) speaking on "The Hobbs Anti-Racketeering Bill." His quarter-hour address will originate in Washington, D. C.

Morton Downey, famous Irish tenor, will be the guest of Ed (Archie) Gardner on "Duffy's Tavern" Tuesday, St. Patrick's eve (8:30 p. m. EWT, WJZ), giving Archie a "beat" on other radio celebrations of the historic Irish holiday. Shirley (Miss Duffy) Booth, in the meantime, is polishing up her Irish accent to impress the singing guest.
