

Burns' Show Introduces Novelty Tune On Thursday

Mrs. Aldrich Loses Rationing Book And Almost Her Family On Hilarious Broadcast

"It's a Long Way From Minsk to Pinsk," a musical travesty on Hitler's Russian failure, will be introduced by Spike Jones and his City Slickers as a novelty musical feature of Bob Burns' "Arkansas Traveler" airing over WEAF Thursday at 7:30 p. m. (EWT).

Mrs. Aldrich finds that a lost ration book still has its points—good and bad—in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF on Thursday at 8:30 p. m. (EWT).

When Mrs. Aldrich comes up missing with her canned goods rationing books, she isn't the only one in the household to suffer a loss; son Henry has mislaid one of his shoes! This misfortune, as Mr. A. points out succinctly, also has bearing on the rationing problem, if not as disastrous as Mrs. Aldrich's loss.

The "convention that never was held," the annual meeting of the American Association of School Administrators were to have staged the latter part of this month in St. Louis but which was cancelled at the behest of the Office of Defense Transportation, will take place—by radio. The first broadcast of the series will be made Thursday, from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ during the weekly "America's Town Meeting of the Air" forum.

"Songs of the Seven Seas" (1812 to 1890) will be presented on "Music of the New World" Thursday, (WEAF, 11:30-12 mid. EWT). Participating in this program of the Inter-American University of the Air will be Leopold Stokowski, speaking on the subject: "Radio as a Music Educator."

Beauty vies with the beast at "Grapevine Rancho" when lovely Joan Bennett of the screen visits Ransom Sherman, comical head man, at the "Rancho." Thursday at 8 p. m., EWT, over WABC. In addition the Colombian singing star, Carlos Ramirez, has chosen the Spanish love song, "Perfidia," as his contribution to the half-hour, which includes Leo Carrillo, Lionel Stander, Lud Gluskin's orchestra and Cynthia Verriberly.

George Tobias, movie comedian recently seen in "Sergeant York" and "My Sister Eileen," comes
