

Chester Morris To Guest On Riggs-Betty Lou Show Friday

Hollywood And New York To Tie In For "Comedy Caravan" Broadcast Featuring Fun-Makers

Wilbur turns super-sleuth and shadows the mysterious "Boston Blackie," played by Chester Morris, when the screen star joins the "Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou" show at Camp Haan, Riverside, Calif., or the broadcast Friday at 10 p. m. (E.W.T.) over WEAF.

Hollywood and New York will be tied up again into a neat package of comic dialogue, when the "Comedy Caravan" presents Rudy Vallee, Joan Davis, Jimmy Durante, Lew Lehr and Herb Shriner as its featured fun-makers, on Friday, at 10 p. m., E.W.T., over WABC.

Dinah Shore will feature the new hit tune, "Hit the Road to Dreamland," as the opening number of her "In Person" song program over WJZ Friday, at 8:15 p. m., E.W.T.

Kate Smith, having broadcast from service camps thruout the East for several months, will salute the men and women behind the man behind the gun with a broadcast from one of America's greatest defense production areas, Baltimore, Md., Friday, over WABC at 8 p. m., E.W.T.

Nora Charles, ever-loving the

FRIDAY, MARCH 19

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One

scatter-brained wife to Nick, has ample opportunity to exhibit her newly-acquired knowledge of how to fix automobiles, both ailing and otherwise, in "The Case of the Angel Without Wings", the knock-down, drag-out chapter in "The Adventures of the Thin Man" for Friday, WABC 8:30 p. m. E.W.T.

Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, will be presented Friday, WEAF, 8 p. m., E.W.T., as the fourth speaker in a series of talks by gardening experts now being heard on the program.

NONE INJURED IN EXPLOSION AT WAR PLANT

EDGEWATER, N. J., March 19 (INS) — Despite the violence of the blasts, no one was reported injured today by the terrific ex-