Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" Will Journey To Maritime Training Station

The discouraging story of "Thirty Ghost Tanks" that never got thru to the Tunisian front where they were desperately needed, due to the vainglory of an assembly line worker, will unfold during the "Men, Machines and Victory" broadcast over WJZ Tuesday, at 7:15 p. m., E.W.T.

Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest," with Frankie Carle, composer-pianist, will journey to the Maritime Training station at Alameda (Calif.) for the Musical Knights broadcast of Tuesday (WEAF, 8:30 p. m. EWT).

Radio directors and their stars pitch camp on opposite sides of the stage as Walter O'Keefe continues to determine mental superiority on "Battle of the Sexes" Tuesday (WEAF, 9 p. m. EWT).

Shelving murder for the night, WJZ's "Famous Jury Trials" program will present a drama based on a true court case of criminal negligence on Tuesday, at 9 p. m., EWT. When fire from a kerosene stove blazed in a rickety tenement, a young girl risked her life to save her favorite cat.

Bernard (Whitey) Berquist, pianist, will be the guest star on "Roy Shield and Company" Tuesday (WEAF, 12:05, EWT), playing the "Rhapsody in Blue" by Gershwin.

Two guests, Susan Hayward and Frank Buck, will be featured on "Duffy's" next Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.
