

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS.

11:00 a. m.—WLS—Feature Foods program presents interview with Virginia Brouk, flying hero's widow, now a WAAC auxiliary.

4:15 p. m.—W.G.N.—Marines Open House: Mary Asslick interviews Capt. Paul Rickard, in charge of officer procurement for Chicago area, on "Marine Slangage."

7:30 p. m.—WLS, WENR—Town Meeting: "Should the United Nations Organize for Peace Now?" with Sen. Joseph Ball and John T. Flynn.

9:30—W.G.N.—Confidentially Yours: Arthur Hale gives his explanation of why Thurman Arnold resigned as anti-trust prosecutor.

VARIETY AND COMEDY.

1:15 p. m.—WCFL—Treasury Center presents Breakfast club cast, with Don McNeill, Jack Baker, Nancy Martin, Marlon Mann, and Cadets.

7:00—WBBM—Grapevine Rancho, with Ransom Sherman, Lionel Stander, Anne O'Neill, and Carlos Ramirez. Guest: Bert Lahr.

7:00—WMAQ—Fanny Brice, Hanley Stafford, and Frank Morgan: Snooks looks for buried treasure—in daddy's war garden.

7:30—W.G.N.—Ahoy America, with Pat Willis, Lt. Orrin Tucker directing Navy band and glee club. Guest: Dottie Dotson.

8:00—WMAQ—Bing Crosby show with Trudy Erwin, Charloteers, and John Scott Trotter's orchestra. Guest: Rags Ragland.

8:30—WMAQ—Rudy Vallee show with Joan Davis and Shirley Mitchell. Guest: Adolphe Menjou, screen star.

8:30—WBBM—Stage Door Canteen, with Bert Lytell, M. C. Guests: Jeanette MacDonald, Capt. Gene Raymond, Cheryl Walker, Chleo Marx, Lauritz Melchior, and Frank Fay.

9:00—WMAQ—Variety, with Jimmy Durante, Garry Moore, Xavier Cugat's orchestra, and Georgia Gibbs. Guest: Billie Burke.

9:15—WENR—Grace Fields pays a tribute to the Russians.

9:30—WCFL—Wings to Victory, with Capt. Mel Rulek, narrator.

10:15—W.G.N.—Chicago at Night, with Lee Bennett, M. C.

10:30—WMAQ—Bob Burns, with Spike Jones and Slickers.

10:45—W.G.N.—Here's Hoopla, music, fun and nonsense.

DRAMA.

7:30 p. m.—WBBM—Death Valley presents story of "Old Zack."

7:30—WMAQ—Aldrich Family, starring Norman Tokar: Henry starts a war garden and his project reaches huge proportions—in his imagination.

9:00—WBBM—The First Line, dramas of United States navy exploits.

MUSIC.

9:00 a. m.—WJJD—Concert Hall: "Manfred" overture and Glazounov's "The Seasons."

Noon—W.G.N.—California Melodies, with Maxine Gray, Leo Arnaud.

Noon—WAAF—Symphonie hour: Dvorak's Concerto in B minor.

3:00 p. m.—WJJD—Concert Hall: "The Prague" symphony by Mozart.

6:00—WJJD—Dinner Concert: Jane Froman sings "Girl Crazy" songs and London Palladium orchestra plays selections from "Faust."

6:15—WBBM—Harry James' band from Civic Opera House.

8:30—W.G.N.—Treasure Hour of Song with Eileen Farrell and Francesco Valentino presenting "Dance of the Clowns," excerpts from Herbert's "Sweethearts," and Verdi's "Pace, Mio Dio."

8:30—WENR—Spotlight Bands, with Horace Heidt's orchestra.

10:00—WENR—World's Most Honored Music.

10:05—WIND—Symphonie hour: "Flying Dutchman" overture, Dohnanyi's "Suite," and Grieg's "Elegiac Melodies."

10:30—WCFL—Music Lovers' hour: "The Marriage of Figaro."

11:15—WMAQ—Music of New World: NBC Symphony orchestra.

Midnight—WENR—Music You Want: Strauss' "Voices of Spring" and Tschalkowsky's Symphony No. 5 (second movement).