

Gracie Allen To Romp Over Regulations At March Field

Ilka Chase Will Be Ed (Archie) Gardner's Guest
On "Duffy's," WJZ, Tuesday Night

Gracie Allen will offer 10-day passes to any or all U. S. Army fliers who will date her homely friend, Tootsie Sagwell, when the Burns and Allen show originates from March field, Riverside, Calif., Tuesday, over WABC at 9 p. m. EWT. Gracie will stow her lanky pal in the trunk of her car and will manage to get past the sentry at the air base, when the guard mistakes Tootsie for George's ventriloquist dummy. Once inside the gates, Gracie and Tootsie will go on a still hunt for a "tall flier named Jim" who, in an absent-minded moment, had given Miss Sagwell a glimmer of encouragement.

Ilka Chase -- beware! Ed (Archie) Gardner, host at "Duffy's", heard every Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ, has invited Miss Chase to be a guest at the bistro on April 27, but if she starts to discuss her book, "Past Imperfect" he is all ready to come back at her with "The Memoirs of Crackpot O'Toole."

Music ranging from Gershwin's folk opera 'Porgy and Bess' to the currently popular samba "Brazil" will be featured by Raymond Palgo and his 10-piece "Young Americans" orchestra, on the second broadcast of "Salute to Youth" Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., EWT., over Station WJAF.

Tom Breneman, the old sophisticated, and Hoot Gibson, hero of the great open spaces and idol of all juvenile would-be cowboys, will exchange quips on Tuesday, when the western movie star visits Breneman's "Breakfast at Sard's," heard over WJZ, Monday from 11 to 11:30 a. m., EWT.

Having saluted the fighting men of all the United Nations during her stirring "Victory Show" broadcasts over WJZ, Gracie Fields, international comedienne, will pay tribute to the housewives of America, those unsung heroines who have to make both ends of the dinner table meet in these trying times. Leading off with the humorous "Please Leave My Butter Alone" on her show of Tuesday at 10:15 p. m., EWT, Gracie will give her musical interpretation of how Mrs. America is coping with the present situation.

Clem Aiken, backwoodsman who shot and killed his neighbor, will go on trial for his life in a murder case to be presented during "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.
