

Mary Pickford's Dog to Take Service Oath on Air Tonight

Mary Pickford will champion the cause of dogs in war when she is guest star tonight on Ginny Simms' "Johnny Presents" program heard on WIBA at 7. The one-time "Sweetheart of the Silver Screen" will bring her dog, Silver, a shepherd, to be sworn in the armed forces by Miss Simms during the broadcast.

Slated for Ginny's hero guest list are Barn P. Hale, navy cook, first class, and a veteran of 18 years' service, who will call Morris Wolf, owner of a grocery in Dallas, Tex., where Hale, as a kid, was the delivery boy.

Thomas Cecola, army technician fifth grade, a shoemaker, stationed at Camp Haan, near Riverside, Calif., will call his father, Anthony Cecola, in Chicago.

Supporting the lovely singing mistress of ceremonies will be Edgar Fairchild's orchestra and the Bombardiers chorus.

'Salute to Youth'

Music ranging from Gershwin's folkopera "Porgy and Bess" to the currently popular samba "Brazil" will be featured by Raymond Paige and his 40-piece "Young Americans" orchestra, on the second broadcast of "Salute to Youth" tonight at 6:30 on WIBA.

Opening with Irving Berlin's "Say It With Music," played by the orchestra, the program continues with Nadine Conner, lyric soprano; William L. White as emcee, Berry Kroeger as narrator; and an honor guest who has distinguished himself on the production line.

Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" program, with Frank Carle, pianist, sharing top billing, will spotlight the "Army Air Corps March" as its opening number tonight over WIBA at 7:30.

'Famous Jury Trials'

Clem Aiken, backwoodsman who shot and killed his neighbor,
