

Ration Problem Confronts "The Parker Family" On Air

New Congressman Will Discuss Subject: "What Are We Going To Do About The Pacific?"

An interesting and timely episode entitled "Baby Needs a Pair of Shoes," launches "The Parker Family" over WJZ Friday at 8:15 p. m. (EWT). In the story, Mrs. Parker promises to give her son, Richard, money and the No. 17 stamp to buy shoes to attend a dance. When she is called out of town she turns the house over to her young daughter, Nancy, who puts the ration books "in a safe place." Richard then cleans out a closet and a few drawers—and what happens to the ration stamps? It has a happy ending but a lot of conflict and laughs before this happens.

Rep. Michael J. Mansfield, (D. Mont.) will talk on the situation in the Pacific in a special broadcast Friday over WEAJ at 10:30 p. m., EWT.) Rep. Mansfield, making his first radio appearance since his election to Congress, has titled his talk: "What Are We Going to Do About the Pacific?"

Nick and Nora Charles buy a new broom and are swept clean into a startling murder mystery in "Death Gets a Brush-off," the chill-and-laugh filled chapter of "The Adventures of the Thin Man" for Friday over WABC at 8:30 p. m., EWT.

Betty Lou will be Queen of the May on the "Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou" broadcast Friday over WEAJ at 10 p. m., EWT.

Arthur Treacher, the serious faced comedian who has glorified the role of butler on the screen, will be interviewed by Stella Unger, "Your Hollywood News Girl" when he appears as guest on her program, Friday at 2:45 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Request day on "Reveille Round-up" will bring out a trio of favorite Western tunes to be presented by Louise Massey and The Westerners Friday over WEAJ at 7:45 a. m., EWT.
